GOLDBERG ENSEMBLE → CELEBRATING 25 YEARS OF MUSIC

A message from David Adams, Co-Artistic Director of the Goldberg Ensemble

Welcome to the 2008 Whitworth
Coffee Concert Series!

This year we have a very special series to celebrate our 25th anniversary season. We are acknowledging this achievement by including works from the very first Goldberg concert in our programmes throughout the season.

In this series we open with Mozart's dramatic Adagio and Fugue, the first notes Goldberg played in public! We also include the Rossini String Sonata in G and the stunningly beautiful Sextet from Strauss Capriccio, both works from Goldberg's debut concert.

To complement our trip down memory lane we also have a series first in April when we feature the viola! Dangerous I know, but we thought once every 25 years should be OK! Mozart's Kegelstatt Trio and the Bruch Pieces are both masterpieces for the unusual combination of viola, clarinet and piano; the magnificent Brahms Clarinet Sonata is Brahms at his greatest.

The Whitworth series is always a highlight of the season for the musicians and hope the same is true for the audience. We look forward to seeing you on some beautiful spring mornings at the Whitworth.

Please watch out for the new start time and check the dates carefully!

The Friends of Goldberg

The Friends of Goldberg offer you a further opportunity to support the Goldberg Ensemble.

As a Friend you will receive our annual newsletter and be acknowledged in our Whitworth Coffee Concert series programmes.

Friends membership costs a minimum donation of £15 for individuals, £25 for a couple, or to be a Patron of the Goldberg Ensemble requires a donation of £50 or more.

Please either tick the box on the form or talk to Michael Taylor at the concerts.

Named after Szymon Goldberg, the Goldberg Ensemble draws the finest string players from across the country to form an ensemble of the highest quality. Through its dynamic and exciting performances it has developed into one of the UK's most accomplished ensembles, playing in the major concert halls, festivals and on radio and television all over the world.

The group's tremendous versatility is displayed by the diversity of its repertoire, encompassing the music of four centuries ranging from chamber ensembles to string ensemble, chamber orchestra and opera.

Plans for our 25th anniversary season include a new commission by Joe Cutler to be performed in our contemporary festival.
